CLIENT CLOSET

how the client closet works

Every Pábitel Photography package includes access to the client closet at no additional cost to the client.

If interested in wearing an item from the client closet, please provide notice at least one week prior to your session date. Every clothing piece is washed after each wear with no exceptions.

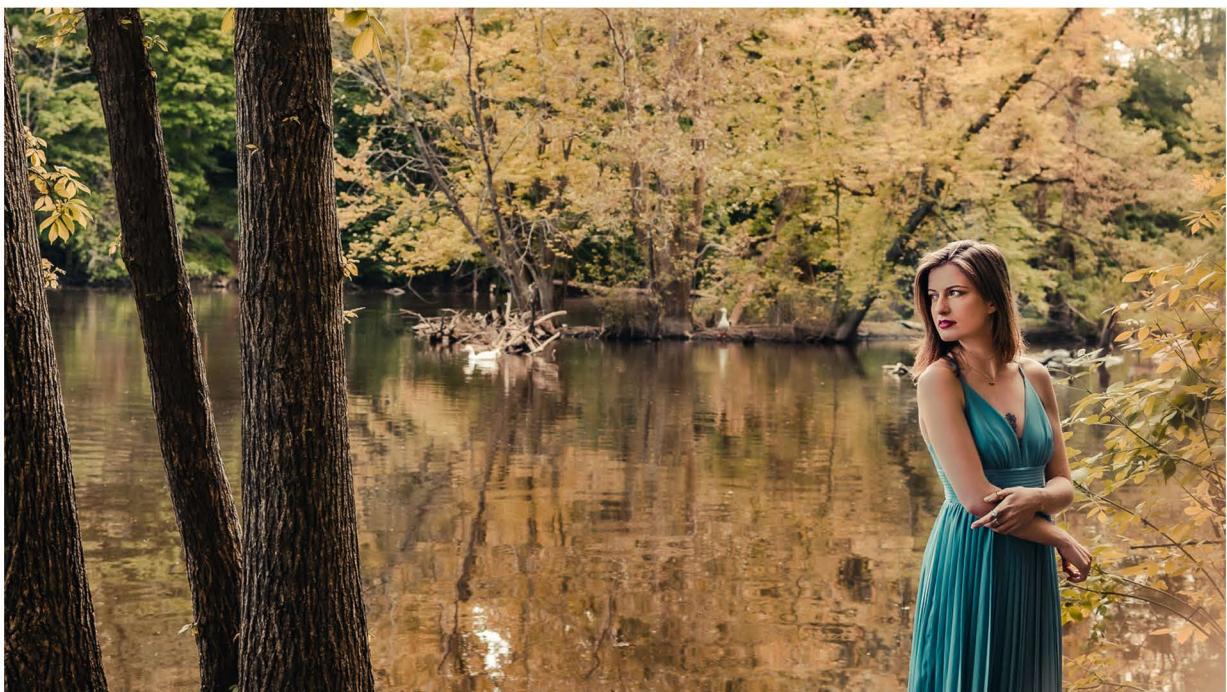

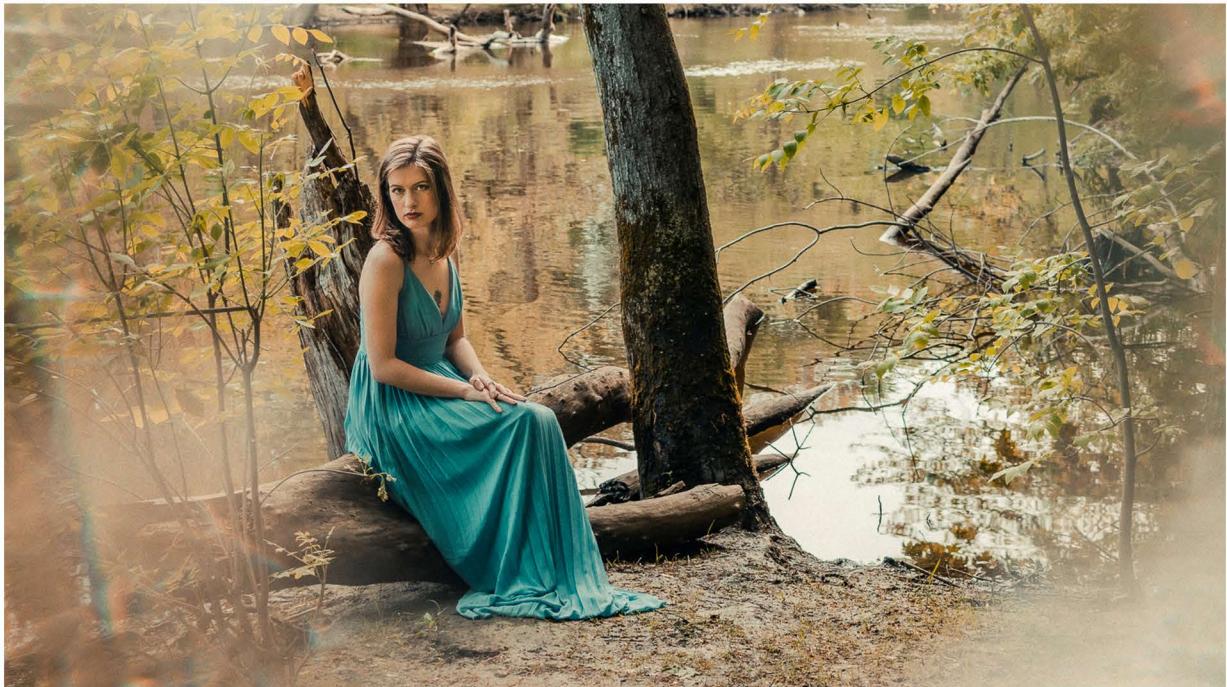

Clients may schedule a time to try on clothing pieces; however, it is their responsibility to do so. If a fitting is not scheduled, it is recommended that the client brings a back-up outfit to their photo session. Sessions will not be rescheduled or refunded due to client dissatisfaction with their outfits. Pábitel Photography provides on-location fitting room access for any session that includes a clothing change or makes use of the client closet.

donating to the client closet

Clothing heavily impacts the look of a photo gallery. A properly coordinated and carefully curated outfit can transform photos from good to breathtaking. Just on their own though, photo sessions are a luxury. For some, buying new clothes to wear for only an hour or two is not a possibility. Through my client closet, I hope to ease this burden for all of my clients. Please consider donating your lightly worn clothing items and accessories to help me diversify what is offered through my client closet.

Pábitel Photography is able to accept the following lightly worn items:

- Formalwear including dresses, dress pants, suits, and shirts. These items are perfect for couples, engagement, and maternity photos.
- Oversized knit sweaters, solid blankets, and silk robes are perfect for boudoir or empowerment sessions.
- Accessories such as ties or jewelry.
